Hapless Harbor Clobbers Camino By 20-12 Score

By GARY PALMER

Hapless Harbor J.C. victim of eight straight defeats, upset El Camino's highly favored Warriors, 20-12, dampening Thanksgiving Day Homecoming spirits of 4582 partisan Warrior fans.

Turkey appetites were lost, as the Seahawks stunned Norm Verry's eleven with three first half touchdowns, and left the field with a 20-0 lead at intermission, a lead which the Warriors could not overcome.

Larry Manly, crafty EC quarterback, played under a handicap all afternoon when he sustained an injured ankle on the second play from scrimmage. This alone, boosted the Seahawks win chances, and they capitalized on it to the tune of 20 points, eight more than the Warriors could garner on this, the final day of the '57 season.

The 'hawks first six came when John Earley intercepted Lynn Hoyem's pass on the EC 20, returning it to the 15. Three plays later, Earley tossed 17 yards to Bob Bates for the TD. Sam Hankerson's conversion attempt was wide. This score came with only a minute and a half remaining in the first quarter.

Less than three minutes later, the Seahawks tallied again. Frank Lathrop's fourth down punt was blocked, and recovered by Al Church on the Camino 14. The following play, Jim Hewitt, Harbor right half, romped into the end zone. Hankerson's conversion was good and the 'hawks led, 13-0.

The third, and final Harbor touchdown came late in the second quarter, when Earley tossed a 22-yard aerial to Clayton Salisbury, and Hankerson's PAT again split the uprights.

Manly and Bob James teamed up for the Warriors first score after Rich Dietrich returned Steve Johnson's punt 17 yards to the Harbor 21. Dietrich made seven yards in two carries, and then Manly hit James on a tackle eligible pass play for the TD.

The other Camino score also came in the third quarter, this time on a 24 yard gallop by Dietrich after a poor Harbor punt gave the Warriors possession on the Seahawk 30.

The defeat meant a losing season for the EC gridder. One of few in the school's 11 year history. It also dropped the Warriors into a sixth place tie with Valley J.C. whom they

NORMANDELE WINNERS SET TO MEET DEC. 7

Normandale Playground's flag football season came to a finish last week end with the championship still in doubt. Illness forced the Mounties to postpone a game with the Stars.

The Mounties-Star tilt to decide the championship will be held Dec. 7. Both teams are undefeated.

The Angels presented a well balanced attack and handed the winless Tigers their seventh straight loss by a 45-19 score. Mike Malone once again paced the victors with a pair of TDs and passed to Roger Renfro for a third. Other red shirted players scoring were Grant Matthews, Jimmy Cassetta, Tom Hickman and Robert Chandler. Phil Smith and Chuck Swearingen both scored for the losers.

Once again the Beavers, with Billy Mullins leading the way, scored a smashing victory as they defeated the Oaks 57-18. Lee Thomas, Denny Byrnham and Wayne Marshall were also big guns for the winners as they ran and passed for TDs in every quarter.

Seven boys entered the scoring column as the Padres moved passed the Seals by a 41-7 margin. The most improved team in the League, the Padres moved to an early lead on Larry Spencer's safety and never fell back. Richard Darjic, Louie Aguilar, Chuck Ault, Mike Lillywhite, George Smith, and Brian Pitsenberger all tallied TDs for Chuck Ackerman's fifth win of the season against only three defeats. Roger Gutierrez marked up the Seals only score on a third quarter run.
